

I am consenting to receive by electronic means only, including through the email address provided above, communications regarding my application, including notice of your decision on my application as well as important account opening information regarding rates, fees and other costs related to credit cards for which I am applying. I understand that these electronic disclosures may not be available in any paper or non-electronic form, so if I would like to retain a copy for my records, I may print or download these disclosures during this application process. I understand that to access and retain these electronic disclosures I must have or have access to the following hardware and software: (1) a computer or mobile device with Internet or mobile connectivity and an operating system; (2) an Internet browser which supports HTML 4.0, SSL encryption and JavaScript (e.g., the latest version of Internet Explorer, Firefox, Chrome or Safari); (3) software capable of opening documents in PDF format; (4) access to the email address I provided above; and (5) sufficient storage space to save communications or a printer to print them. I understand that I must consent to receive these materials electronically to submit this application.