Termination/Access Restriction

DevCentral reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate your access to the DevCentral Web Site and the related services or any portion thereof at any time, without notice.

General

Use of the web site is unauthorized in any jurisdiction that does not give effect to all provisions of these terms and conditions, including without limitation this paragraph. You agree that no joint venture, partnership, employment, or agency relationship exists between you and Company as a result of these terms or use of the Company web site. Company's performance under these terms is subject to existing laws and legal process, and nothing contained in these terms is in derogation of Company's right to comply with governmental, court and law enforcement requests or requirements relating to your use of the web site or information provided to or gathered by Company with respect to such use. If any part of these terms is determined to be invalid or unenforceable pursuant to applicable law including, but not limited to, the warranty disclaimers and liability limitations set forth above, then the invalid or unenforceable provision will be deemed superseded by a valid, enforceable provision that most closely matches the intent of the original provision and the remainder of the terms shall continue in effect. Unless otherwise specified herein, these terms constitutes the entire agreement between the user and Company with respect to the web site and it supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals, whether electronic, oral or written, between the user and Company with respect to the web site. A printed version of these terms and of any notice given in electronic form shall be admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings based upon or relating to these terms to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as other business documents and records originally generated and maintained in printed form. It is the express wish to the parties that these terms and all related documents be drawn up in English.
